Stage One Questions

Please send us an outline proposal which answers the following questions on no more than three to four sides of A4 paper:

1. Please tell us about the work of your organisation and your track record.
2. Please provide an outline of the issue you want to address and why your organisation is best placed to respond to this need.
3. What practical difference do you want to make and how you propose to do this? Please include details of the anticipated outcomes and how you propose to achieve these.
4. Having considered the characteristics of the organisations and projects that we prefer to fund (see website for full details), why do you believe there is a good match between the project you have described above and The Rayne Foundation?
5. What would you like The Rayne Foundation to help with?

Please enclose the following:

1. An income and expenditure budget for the proposed activity showing what has been raised and from whom, where you would like us to make a contribution and how much, and how any shortfall will be met.
2. A copy of your most recent annual accounts.
3. If the request is for work which follows on from a recent pilot, please enclose the relevant findings or evaluation.

Please send your completed application (cover sheet, answers to the above and attachments) to applications@raynefoundation.org.uk. We prefer to receive applications by email but if for any reason you are unable to send it this way, please post to The Rayne Foundation, 3 Bromley Place, London W1T 6DB.
